Specific Regulations

B17. Responsibilities of students with respect to assessments

It is the responsibility of students to attend examinations and submit work for assessment as required and to provide the examiners in advance of their meeting with any relevant information on personal circumstances which may have affected performance and which they wish the examiners to take into account.

If a student fails without good cause to provide the examiners in advance of their meeting with information about any personal circumstances that may have affected performance in assessments, the Academic Registrar or authorised deputy has authority to reject the request for a review on those grounds.

If a student fails to attend examinations or at the right time to submit work for assessment without good cause, the examiners have authority to deem the student to have failed the assessments concerned.

If a student is found to have cheated or attempted to gain an unfair advantage, the appropriate Disciplinary Officer or a Misconduct Committee, as the case may be, have authority to deem the student to have failed part or all of the assessments, or to require some other penalty.
