Delegation of authority to Disciplinary Officers

1. GENERAL:

1.1 It is important that disciplinary matters should be dealt with at the appropriate operational level within the University. Many breaches of the Student Conduct Regulations will not be disputed by the perpetrator and many are likely to result in only minor sanctions. It would place unnecessary stress on all those involved, as well as being a waste of their time, if such cases were not dealt with quickly and relatively informally. On the other hand, where the allegations are serious and could lead to a significant penalty being imposed, it is important that the necessary time and care is taken to ensure that the correct decisions are made.

1.2 The Vice-Chancellor has delegated their power to discipline students, within the framework set out in the Student Conduct Regulations and Procedure (“the regulations” or “the procedure”), to the Disciplinary Officers listed in Section 2, subject to the indicated limitations on their areas of authority and the penalties available to them. Some Disciplinary Officers are holders of specific posts within the University, while others are designated by the relevant Pro Vice-Chancellor/Dean or Director on behalf of the Vice-Chancellor. Where indicated, a Disciplinary Officer may also nominate one or more senior members of their staff to act on their behalf in respect of some or all disciplinary cases within their area of authority. Disciplinary Officers other than those who are the holders of specific posts, including nominees, are appointed by the relevant Pro-Vice-Chancellor/Dean, Director or Disciplinary Officer informing the University Student Conduct Officer in writing of their details, areas of authority and the penalties available to them. The names of the Disciplinary Officers are set out on the Student Disputes Web Pages.

1.3 While the Vice-Chancellor retains their authority and right to act in all disciplinary cases, it would be most unusual for them to become personally involved in any individual case, in order that they can retain the ability to act as an ultimate reviewer of any case should that ever become necessary. Similarly, while the Vice-Chancellor has nominated each member of the Senior Management Team to act on their behalf, it would be most unusual for any member of the Senior Management Team to become personally involved in any individual disciplinary case except as provided for, and so that they may undertake the roles described, in Appendices 2 and 3.

1.4 Where it appears that two or more Disciplinary Officers have authority to determine a case, they shall decide between them which one of them is going to do so. Similarly, if a Disciplinary Officer starts to investigate a case and decides that it would be more appropriately handled by another Disciplinary Officer, either because of the nature of the alleged breaches or because of the circumstances of the case or because of the range of penalties open to the other Disciplinary Officer, they may transfer the case to the other Disciplinary Officer, subject to the agreement of that Disciplinary Officer (see Handbooks and Guidance Notes). In cases of doubt, or where it appears that no available Disciplinary Officer has the authority to determine a case, advice should be sought from the University Student Conduct Officer.

1.5 At Level A, the maximum fine that can be imposed for each breach of a Student Conduct Regulation is £250 and the maximum period of community service that can be imposed for each breach of a Student Conduct Regulation is 10 hours. The maxima at Level B are £1000 and 30 hours, respectively.
