Meet Artie, the Humanoid Robot
Saturday 6 May
10:30am – 11:30am
Meet the full-sized humanoid celebrity, Artie! At OutBurst 2017 you will get the chance to control Artie, get him to sing songs or enact extracts from famous movies, you can even write your own script for him to perform.

Tai Chi & Kung Fu
Saturday 6 May
5:15pm – 6:15pm
This workshop will offer taster sessions in two traditional Chinese martial arts and health practices: Tai Chi and Kung Fu from Wudang mountain, and also Win Chun Kung Fu. The workshop includes demonstrations from both child and adult practitioners, followed by an opportunity for both children and adults to try the practices themselves. This workshop is run by local clubs Daoshu Wudang Arts and WCI Oxford.

Drawing with Light
Saturday 6 May
3:45pm – 4:45pm
Adrian Pawley, Technical Video Specialist, demonstrates the technique of drawing with light through a one hour workshop, creating images with long exposure photography and torches. Part drawing, part choreographed performance, participants move coloured lights around the stage space to draw in the air. Using long exposure photography these movements are captured and complex, beautiful images are created.

Home/Less
Friday 5 May
7:00pm – 7:45pm
What does home mean? Where is it? Is it a physical place or a state of mind? Should we nurture our roots – could they otherwise die? Do we have only one home?
An evening packed with readings from Ahmed Masoud’s novel Vanished – The Mysterious Disappearance of Mustafa Ouda and Laura Ryhänen’s interpretations of ancient Finnish songs.

Furniture Design Workshop
Saturday 6 May
2:00pm – 3:00pm
Rycotewood Furniture Centre (Oxford) has collaborated with the This Girl Makes initiative, to present an inclusive and practical workshop, that offers an insight into furniture design and making. With all equipment provided, participants will be able to create and take home with them, a small furniture item of their own design. All welcome.

Cooking with Ken Hom
Saturday 6 May
3:30pm – 5:00pm
Ken Hom OBE is the man who showed the British how to cook Asian food. A leading authority on Chinese cuisine, he talks about his life in food while making some tasty dishes. Ken has cooked for presidents, prime ministers, celebrities and royalty – this afternoon he’s cooking for you!

Family Friendly Saturday at OutBurst!

Have your face painted, say hello to the Brookes robots, then have a go at drawing in virtual reality!

Come and join us on Saturday at OutBurst for a family friendly day out! Children of all ages are welcome at Pegasus Theatre. The building is totally accessible for wheelchairs and pushchairs, and the café will be open for a drink or a bite to eat.

---

Art & Music

Work from students on the Fine Art Course at Oxford Brookes and from students from the Foundation Degree Course at Swindon College.

An exhibition of student work in a variety of media including painting, photography, and printmaking. This will emphasise the diversity of practices which contribute to contemporary fine art.

We are also hosting music students who will be playing live in the café.
