THURSDAY 16 MAY 2019, 16:45–18:00.

Boardroom, B1.10, Harcourt Hill Campus

These sessions give you an informal opportunity to speak to academics and members of the programme team to find out more about the Oxford Brookes, Doctor of Education course.

This course is for experienced professionals working in education, healthcare and related fields. The Doctor of Education provides you with an opportunity to pursue doctoral study in the context of your professional role. Application is open to professionals who normally have a minimum of four years' experience and a master's qualification. The programme of study is structured to meet the needs of people who are in full-time employment.

The Doctor of Education (EdD) is a professionally focused, cohort-based doctorate. It combines taught courses with independent research.
