Applications are invited for the Oxford Brookes University Gaza Scholarship for entry in September 2019. The scholarship is fully-funded covering fees, accommodation and most living expenses for the Academic Year 2019/20.

Applicants should fulfil the following criteria:

- Wish to study for a one year full-time Master’s degree at Oxford Brookes University
- Have a good undergraduate degree (equivalent to a 1st/2:1)
- Be under 35 years of age
- Have an IELTS score of 6.0-7.0 overall (with 6.0 in reading and writing, 5.5 in listening and speaking)
- Have relevant work experience
- Undertake to return to Gaza after completing their studies
- Be in financial need

There are two aspects to the application required for this scholarship:

1. Application for admission to a particular programme

Various fields of study can be found by going to the following webpages: http://www.brookes.ac.uk/international/courses/postgraduate-courses/

Applicants should apply using the relevant application form, by following the links to the desired program of study from the website at: http://www.brookes.ac.uk/studying/applications

Priority fields of study (other areas may also be considered)
- Built Environment, Regeneration, Development, Environmental Management
- Development and Emergency Practice
- Public Health, Disease Prevention and Control, Rehabilitation, Social Care
- Law, Human Rights
- IT

2. Application for the Scholarship

Having made the above application as described above, applicants for the scholarship should then write a letter of no more than 500 words, confirming that they have applied for admission to the university, stating which program they have applied for, and explaining both how they meet the criteria and why they should be considered for the scholarship. Applicants must ensure they include their full name on the letter.

The Scholarship application letter should be sent directly to:
The British Council in Gaza, care of: Merna.Kassis@ps.britishcouncil.org
to be received no later than 31st March 2019

A shortlist of candidates will be selected in April with interviews taking place before the end of May 2019.
