International Women’s Day: Celebrating Women’s Empowerment
Monday 14th March 2016, 6pm in Chakrabarti Room
(208 JHBB, Level 2, Headington Campus)

In celebration of International Women’s Day we are hosting a panel event on the theme: Celebrating Women’s Empowerment.

Talks from our invited speakers followed by discussion with members of the audience.

Speakers:
Professor Tina Miller - BA, MSc, PhD Professor of Sociology, Oxford Brookes University,
Malia Bouattia - NUS Black Students’ Officer
Lindsay Williams - Principal Lecturer for Student Experience and Teaching Fellow
Zarah Latif - Master of Public Policy Candidate at Blavatnik School of Government, University of Oxford

“Caring for myself is not self-indulgence, it is self-preservation, and that is an act of political warfare”
Audre Lorde

FOR MORE INFORMATION, PLEASE CONTACT:
Email: ksesay@brookes.ac.uk
Twitter: @BrookesEDI
#IWD2016
#PledgeForParity
EDI Website: http://bit.ly/24t27NW