

POSTGRADUATE INTERNATIONAL STUDIES

Newsletter - August 2012

Graduation

On June 22nd and 23rd many students of the Class of 2010 met again at the Oxford Brookes' graduation ceremony. Friends and family celebrated the educational milestone.

2012-13 applications

Once again the number and diversity of applications for our masters have increased. In addition to more UK and EU students, students from the USA, South Africa, Iraq, Bahrain, Ethiopia and India, to mention only a few, have been accepted onto our courses. The multi-cultural teaching environment at Brookes is a core educational tool for understanding global developments and building the vocational skills of our post-graduate students.

Latest Staff Activities

- The Department of Social Sciences and the School of Law are hiring a total of six new staff-members.
- Prof. Math Noortmann is speaking at the International Law Association Conference in Sofia Bulgaria, 25 – 28 August.
- A number of staff presented papers at the BISA-ISA International Relations Conference held in Edinburgh, 20-22 June.

New Research Centre

The new Centre for Global Politics, Economy and Society is an inter-disciplinary research centre focused on social transformations of global scope which are impacting upon the world today.

Alumni News

Former and current students have gone on to find jobs in Oxford in such organisations as: Thames Valley Police, Oxford City Council, Oxford University, Oxford Brookes University and British-English Study Centre.
