

OXFORD
BROOKES
UNIVERSITY

Department of Anthropology and Geography

School of Social Science and Law

EJRC Semester Two 2008/09 Seminars

Power and Politics in Contemporary Arts and Humanities' Study of Japan

Wednesdays at 5 pm - GIBBS 117

(Followed by a buffet reception)

February 18th

Professor Scott Schnell, University of Iowa

Unshrouding the Mountains:
A Different Perspective on Japanese Cultural Heritage

March 4th

Professor Aldo Tollini, University of Venice

Problems in the Modernization of the Japanese Language

March 11th

Professor Timon Screech, School of Oriental and African Studies (SOAS)

Myths of the Artists in Japan

March 18th

Professor Ian Reader, University of Manchester

Exhibitions, Cultural Heritage and PR Campaigns: Contemporary Pilgrimage and the Decline of Buddhism in Japan

March 25th

Dr Linda Flores, University of Oxford

Love and Revolution: Women in Japanese Proletarian Literature

April 1st

Professor David Plath, University of Illinois Urbana-Champaign

(Film presentations and a Q&A session)

Can't Go Native: Documenting Long Engagements with Ethnography in Japan

April 22nd

Professor Mark Rowe, McMaster University

The Death of Buddhism in Contemporary Japan