HESA 2016/17
We are delighted you’re thinking of coming to Oxford Brookes University. Read on to find out why around 400 students per year choose the exchange or study abroad programme at Oxford Brookes.

We hope you decide to join them.
If you choose to study at Oxford Brookes you will find one of the world’s most scenic and historic cities on your doorstep. It is big enough to offer something for everyone but small enough to be welcoming and easy to get around. So when you take a break from your studies, here are few things you can do in this special place.

SHOP ‘TIL YOU DROP

If you’re looking for some retail therapy, head for the High Street or Cornmarket Street. With their wide pavements and historic buildings they combine a sense of atmosphere with the latest clothing and department stores. Oxford’s Covered Market, dating back to 1774, houses a range of charming independent shops and quirky boutiques stocking everything from hats to handbags and cheese to chocolate. For designer brands and luxury fashion at discounted prices visit Bicester Village outlet shopping centre and pick up a bargain.

ARE YOU A CULTURE VULTURE?

You are spoilt for choice in Oxford. Traditional museums such as the Ashmolean, Pitt Rivers and History of Science rub shoulders with contemporary galleries like Modern Art Oxford. Take in a show at the Oxford Playhouse, the Pegasus Theatre or the New Theatre where West End plays alternate with the biggest bands and stand-up comedians.

Some students at Oxford Brookes may also apply for access to the world-renowned Bodleian Library, an unparalleled resource, home to more than 11 million printed items and 50,000 e-journals all in the most exquisite of settings.

LEISURE TIME

Westgate Oxford is a leisure facility in the centre of Oxford which offers shops, restaurants, cafés and a cinema.

Relax in South Park, next to Headington Campus and admire the celebrated dreaming spires – don’t miss the annual firework display.
Spread a rug out on the Botanic Garden’s rolling lawns or float past them in one of Oxford’s famous flat-bottomed boats known as punts.

MAKE A NIGHT OF IT
Go see a Shakespeare play performed outdoors in beautiful surroundings and take a picnic. Enjoy live music at the O2 Academy on the buzzing Cowley Road, or a classical concert at the stunning Sheldonian Theatre. There’s always the latest blockbuster movie at one of the central cinemas or a classic film at the Ultimate Picture Palace if you’re feeling nostalgic. Or get a real taste for British culture in a traditional pub, perhaps where J.R.R. Tolkien and C.S. Lewis once discussed the world of fantasy novels.

EATING OUT
Feeling hungry? No problem. Whatever your appetite, Moroccan to Mexican, Indian to Italian, Oxford caters for every taste and every budget.

- Formal teaching is usually around 3 hours a week in subjects like humanities and social sciences, and 6 hours a week in science and technology and some vocational subjects.
- Generally teaching takes place during the first 12 weeks. For the rest of the semester you will complete all the relevant assessments; this can include coursework or examinations.
- There are two semesters per academic year. The first semester is from September to December. The second semester is from January to May.

LIVING IN OXFORD

The amount of money you will need for living costs will depend on your course and individual level of spending. Why Students Choose Brookes

“I really enjoyed meeting people from other countries and learning about their culture as we experienced the English culture together. I made friends from Australia, the US, Finland, Germany and Spain. These were the ones I talked the most with, though there was always a feeling of a small international community where everyone was welcome and respected.”

Mille Bjørn, study abroad student from UCC University College, Denmark

“It’s just a great way to get abroad and see a different perspective on your course. I knew that I wanted to do an exchange, because the whole university culture is something I can only experience now!”

Sabrina Witzlau, Erasmus student from Bauhaus-Universität, Germany

“I really like the depth of knowledge that the professors have and the discussions that we have in class. It’s a change for me, because they’re from a different perspective, but they’re interesting and they talk about a lot of stuff that is relevant to being an American and being in that situation, so it’s interesting! I really appreciate the wealth of knowledge that I’m getting from other people, including my professors.”

London Donson, exchange student from California State University, US
