

Bank

1. a business that keeps and lends money and provides other financial services
2. land along the side of a river or lake
3. a place where human blood, etc. is stored until someone needs it
4. a large mass of clouds, mist, etc.
5. a large sloping mass of earth, sand, snow, etc.
6. a large number of machines, television screens, etc. arranged close together in a row
7. a supply of money used to gamble, that people can win
8. a slope made at a bend in a road or racetrack to make it safer for cars to go around