Do my financial documents meet the UKVI requirements? Student loan checklist

Is my course more than 9 months?

If the answer is yes, your financial evidence must show:

Tuition fees for the academic year (minus fees you have already paid)	Living costs	TOTAL (remaining tuition fees + living costs)
£	£9,207	£

Is my course less than 9 months?

If the answer is yes, your financial evidence must show:

Tuition fees for the course (minus any fees you have paid)	Living costs	TOTAL (remaining tuition fees + living costs)
£	£1,023 for each month of the course	£

Your financial documents must meet the UKVI requirements. See the checklist on the next page and make sure you can answer yes to all of the questions.

Please note: If your student loan does not cover all of your course fees and living costs, you must show that you have the rest of the money required.

You are able to use a combination of different financial evidence. See what evidence can you provide section of the webpage.

You must use the OANDA currency converter used by the UKVI when converting your currency to British Pounds (GBP).

Student Loan

You must be able to answer yes to all of the following financial requirements:
Is the student loan provided by one of the following: a) a government b) a government sponsored student loan company c) an academic or educational loan scheme which is provided by a financial institution regulated for the purpose of issuing student loans
Does the letter confirm the loan is provided to the applicant by a, b or c above?
If your educational loan is from a financial institution, does it confirm that the loan is part of an educational loan 'scheme' and not just an educational loan?
Has your official sponsor provided a letter which confirms the sponsorship and is the letter on official letter-headed paper which includes all of the following: - the contact details of the sponsor, - name of the sponsor?
Does the loan letter confirm the loan is to the applicant only?
Is the letter dated within the last 6 months?
Does the loan letter confirm the amount of the loan?
Does the letter confirm that there are no conditions on release of the loan funds other than a successful application to study in the UK as a student?
Does the loan letter confirm the funds will be either: - available to you before you travel to the UK; or - paid directly to the university before you travel to the UK, with any living cost amount of the loan being made available to you by the time you arrive in the UK; or - available to you before you begin your course if the loan is provided by your national government.		