Do my financial documents meet the UKVI requirements? Bank letter checklist

Is my course more than 9 months?

If the answer is yes, your financial evidence must show:

Tuition fees for the academic year (minus fees you have already paid)	Living costs	TOTAL (remaining tuition fees + living costs)
£	£9,207	£

Is my course less than 9 months?

If the answer is yes, your financial evidence must show:

Tuition fees for the course (minus any fees you have paid)	Living costs	TOTAL (remaining tuition fees + living costs)
£	£1,023 for each month of the course	£

Your financial documents must meet the UKVI requirements. See the checklist on the next page and make sure you can answer yes to all of the questions.

Please note: If you do not have enough funds in the personal bank account, you are able to use a combination of different financial evidence. See <a href="https://www.whatevidence.com/whatevi

If you using more than one bank statement or bank letter, they would need to cover the same 28 consecutive day period.

You must use the OANDA currency converter used by the UKVI when converting your currency to British Pounds (GBP).

Bank letter for a personal account

You must be able to answer yes to all of the following financial requirements:
Have you checked what type of account you can use/can't use? See the section what types of account can/can't I use on the ISAT webpage.
Is it a personal account (the account must not be a business account)?
Is the account in the name of one of the following: - your name, - one or both parent's/legal guardian's name, - a joint account you hold with someone, - your partner (ONLY if they are applying for permission at the same time or have been granted permission)?
Does the letter confirm the minimum balance (not the average amount) you need to show over the 28 day period?
Is the account number printed on the letter?
Is the letter dated? The letter cannot be older than 31 days.
Is the letter on official headed paper which includes all of the following: - the contact details of the financial institution, - name of the financial institution, - and logo?
Has the letter been signed by an official from the financial institution?
If your documents are not in English, have they been officially translated into English with all of following information: - the translator/translation company's contact details - confirmation that it is an accurate translation of the original document - the name and original signature of the translator or an authorised official of the translation company - the date of the translation.
 If you are using a parent('s) account, have you provided the two documents below: a copy of your birth certificate which shows the relationship between you and your parent(s)? a letter of consent giving permission for you to use the funds in the account of your parent(s)? See the ISAT webpage for an example consent letter.
