

The bank statement should show the financial institution's name and logo

Bank Name

Bank Logo

The statement should show your full name.

Date: 9 July-8 August

Name: Mr John Smith

Account no: 51678953

Internet statements need to look the same but will need the bank's stamp on each page

Bank Account Statement

Your personal bank statement needs to show your account number

You need to show you have had the funds for a consecutive 28 day period

Your statement will need to show the balance each time there is a credit or debit from the account

Your transactions

Date	Description	Money out	Money in	Balance
09/07/2019	Start balance			29,698.42
11/07/2019	Card payment to Marks & Spencer	55.00		29,643.42
16/07/2019	Cash machine withdrawal	100.00		29,543.42
25/07/2019	Direct Debit to British Gas	110.00		29,433.42
31/07/2019	Received from Oxford Brookes		1256.96	30,690.38
05/08/2018	Card payment to Sainsburys	124.96		30,565.42
08/08/2019	Direct Debit to Halifax	598.12		29,967.30
8 August	End balance			29,967.30

You need to make sure that your balance does not drop below the required amount for 28 days. You need to apply within 31 days of the date of the last day of the 28 day period. The final balance on the statement needs to be the required amount or more