

Oxford Brookes University presents the

PROFESSIONAL SERVICES STAFF RESEARCH SHOWCASE

Headington Gipsy Lane | Wednesday 27 February 2019

SCHEDULE

Ten minute presentations and questions will run in parallel followed by a closing plenary and networking lunch.

SESSION A | SNOW ROOM JHB 408

CHAIR Dave McPhee

10.00-10:15am - Welcome coffee with Anne-Marie Kilday

10:15-11:00am HISTORY AND REVOLT

LAUREN HALL

Women's Social and Political Union and suffragette militancy.

SARAH SLATOR

The international significance the Rivonia trial; a trial of 10 anti-apartheid campaigners in South Africa 1963-1964.

BETHANY McNAMARA-DALE

Jurisdictional conflict and Supranational Order: German Legal Reform 1770-1866.

11.00 - 11.15am BREAK

SESSION B | JHB 407

CHAIR Karen Brockington

10:15-11:00am TOPICAL ISSUES

MARTHA CADLE

Managing the demands of the preregistration mental health nursing programme: The views of students with mental health conditions.

KIRON NEALE

Interactions between culture and policy during energy transitions on small tropical islands.

SOFIA HUSSAIN

Exploring students' attitudes towards harassment, hate crime, sexual violence and reporting mechanisms.

11.00 - 11.15am BREAK

SCHEDULE

Ten minute presentations and questions will run in parallel followed by a closing plenary and networking lunch.

SESSION A | SNOW ROOM JHB 408

11.15-12.00 CULTURAL THEMES

CLAIRE COX

Raw space: Hurricane Katrina, New Orleans and the poetics of disaster in Patricia Smith's Blood Dazzler.

LUCY CRILLY

The status and reception of glazed terracotta sculptures by Luca and Andrea della Robbia in Renaissance Italy.

CAROLINE BLYTHE

Exploration of Edward Thomas's In Pursuit of Spring. A collection of poems and drawings.

12.00-13.00 NETWORKING LUNCH

SESSION B | JHB 407

11:15-12:00 INTERNATIONAL EXPERIENCE

SIMON HEAP

The Life and Times and Death of Lagos Colony's Postmaster George Cole.

MARTINA ADAMCIKOVA

Is Tibetan cultural identity in danger of survival? Language, religion and development in Tibetan Autonomous Region.

JOSEPH RIPP

Paying the Piper and Calling the Tune: Giant City Statue Park and the New Deal during the Great Depression.

OXFORD
BROOKES
UNIVERSITY